

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

Carolynne Mary Martin

(August 8, 1991 - November 2, 2007)

We are not invincible! Lets all learn from our mistakes and live life without any regrets! Dont take anything for granted! We all miss our angel, lets thank God we got to meet her! Dont drive faster than your guardian angel can fly!

Marite

This memorial website was created to remember Carolynne Mary Martin who was born on August 8, 1991 and passed away on November 2, 2007. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Her spirit, happiness, laughter will stay with us forever. Nini as she loved to be called was an angel on earth and now in heaven, she brightened a room with a unincredible smile that was so contagious you couldnt look away. Her love for nature and animals showed us her weakness. Her hugs are still unforgettable, I still feel them now! She lived life to the fullest and did everything she can imagine, that we thank. Her beautiful long hair shined from a mile away, she never wanted to cut it! I just remeber so much about her as to others and i thank God that i got to have a bestfriend their for me forever, because even if she is gone i know shes watching over us laughing and partying with us. I have NEVER met someone as special as our angel carolynne!

- Marite, Tiffany, Barby.

Gallery

so sweet, so unforgettable...

rappids! with her daddy and big sister!

Bestfriends!

Her Huge Hugs!

I LOVE YOU! Your in my heart forever and ever!

Another sister!

Like father like daughter!

Her favorite place!

They will always love eachother!

i loved those random conversations we had on the phone.

Partying like always!

That smile is unforgettable

She even did business in jamaica!

Freshman retreat!

She loved him!

Yes she even did this!

I LOVE YOU <33

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are rendered in a light, almost ethereal tone against a textured, olive-green background. The roses appear to be made of a delicate material, possibly paper or fabric, with soft shadows and highlights that give them a three-dimensional feel. The overall aesthetic is gentle and commemorative.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. They are set against a mottled, olive-green background with a subtle, grainy texture.

Condolences

from the deepest of our hearts...

I'll lend you for a little time, a child of mine," He said.

"For you to love her while she lives, and mourn when she is dead.

It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,

But will you, till I take her back, take care of her for me?

She'll bring her charms to gladden you, and though her stay be brief,

You'll have lovely memories as solace for your grief.

I cannot promise she will stay, since all from Earth return,

But there are lessons taught down there, I want this child to learn.

I've looked the wide world over in search for teachers true.

And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes, I have selected you.

Now will you give her all your love, nor think the labor vain,

Nor hate me when I come to call, to take her back again?"

*I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done.
For all the joy Thy child will bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter her with tenderness, we'll love her while we may:
And for the happiness we've known, forever grateful stay."*

*But when the angels call for her, much sooner than we planned,
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes, and try to understand.
That when God calls little children to dwell with Him above,
We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of His love.*

*For no heartache compares with the death of one small child.
Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold,
And so he picks a rosebud before it can grow old.*

*God knows how much we need them, and so he takes but a few,
To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult, still somehow we must try.*

The saddest word mankind knows will always be "Goodbye".

*So when a little child departs, we who are left behind,
Must realize God loves children, angels are hard to find.*

Sisters of the Heart

For there is no friend like a sister

In calm or stormy weather;

To cheer one on the tedious way,

To lift one if one totters down,
To strengthen whilst one stands*

I Am Free

December 7, 2007

I received this after I lost a close friend in college unexpectedly. Passing it along. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

I AM FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh,
to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now, He set me free.

JUST KNOW

December 6, 2007

Just Know

Just know that I didn't just "Go through something."

Just know that I am not the same, I can't "Just get over it."

Just know that my child was alive.

Just know as any parent would, I did my best to save her.

Just know I did fall short.

Just know that you don't "know what I mean."

Just know that you can't know "how it feels."

Just know that I want to talk sometimes but can't.

Just know that I have some pain you can't feel.

Just know that God willing, you will never be able to feel how I feel.

Just know that you don't know.

Just know that I need you there anyway.

God's Angel

December 6, 2007

God's Little Angel

God saw you getting tired,

When a recovery was not to be.

He wrapped his arms around you,

And whispered "Come to Me"

So keep your arms around her, Lord,

And give her special care.

Make up for all her suffering,

And all that seemed unfair.

Nini, (my chukie),

I am so proud of you...as I read all of these beautiful condolence letters that make me feel humble and cry and laugh all at once. I can not but think, how lucky it was for me to be your mother. You had a wonderful sence of truth, honesty, conviction and love like no other and as I read your sweet friends and loved ones comments it shows proof that you are loved as you gave your love to them and to your family honestly and with true conviction of love. If anyone ever felt one of your hugs they know that those hugs were real and honest and given from your little heart. You are missed because of who you were and how you treated others with love and honesty. One of the things I loved about you was that you never judged anyone and if anyone would make a negative comment about others you woul always say with the sweetest look of compassion in your face.."don't say that...that person is going through a taugh time..". I love you honey, so much and I wish I could replace you for me because if anyone is needed in this earth more it is you. I know you're in heaven, with God, and how awesome it must have been to finally meet Him..I am no longer afraid of death because I get to see you and hug you and kiss you for as long as I want...May God give us that day when we will meet again. Your sister Cati misses u a lot..I thank God every day she is with me. I will remember all your funny comments out of the blue and that laugh that sometimes came out of no where and made me laugh even though there was nothing funny to laugh at you just would do things like that. I will miss your delicious breakfast you made me for mother's day ever since you learned how to cook. You're omellets with cheese and your steaks were awesome. I have memories of you since you were in my belly and then some. I love you my angel , help me raise your sister and guide her always. Farwell, for now..Your loving mammy for ever.

"sometimes things happen & its hard to understand why they happen. & while you sit & think about how much it sucks that something so terrible could happen to such amazing people. we have to hold on to our faith & know that God has a plan. carolynne martin, you were an amazing sister & an amazing friend. i miss you so much but i know you are in a better place. it's hard to understand why these things happen. maybe you had already fulfilled God's plan by touching so many of your friends as you did everyday with your crazy, carefree personality. i know you're happy now in heaven & you'll be watching over caty & your friends from there. it's going to be hard to go to school & not have you there to bother me after 7th period, asking me the same question & getting the same exact answer "i don't know where caty is!" lol i will remember you always & you will always have a special place in my heart.

I heard about your death in a car accident. i had always hoped that one day i would be able to search for my seventh grade crush. we went to h g hills together and dated for a while. you were this cute innocent girl i always loved to chase around :) it is hard to smile remembering you, and that i can never go back. you had the cutest frekkles and a wonderful smile that always brightened my day. you probably dont know this but you helped so much in dealing with a bunch of bad things going on with my family. i will always remember you and what you did for me. i hope that you remember me and maybe possibly still have that dumb ring i gave you like on the last day i think. maybe you dont but that is ok. I still have that bookmark that you made me with the fancy letters that spelled out Carolynne Mary Martin. i had always said that i would one day rent a bus and drive around the states picking up and seeing old friends. it makes me very sad that you will not be there. i will save a seat for you though and i will think about you as often as i can. i cry for the new angel in heaven. i hope one day i can see you again

NiNi <3

November 27, 2007

Although (NiNi) I wasn't your bff or super close to you, we would talk about our weekends all the time. And I just wanted to thank you for changing my life although maybe I don't talk about it or show it to others, I don't have to because everyday your memory seems to come up in my mind, just convincing me to look forward and love life & cherish it with every fiber in my little body and I thank you for just making me looking at life beyond the box and making me feel like I want to be this better person and give life all my best. Others probably feel the same way as I do. And before I go to sleep at night I always pray for you to guide your family and the ones who loved you under your wing so they can be strong to realize they didn't lose a daughter, sister, niece or friend. They gained a beautiful spirit that will forever look upon them and make them realize God has plans for them to live happy and to always remember to love life as you did and take every harsh moment as a unforgettable learning experience. There is so much to say but I'll keep it short you will be loved always and please continue to guide me and all those who love you. Thank you guardian angel Nini. RIP <3<3<3

Janet Sierra McIntyre

the greatest loss

November 25, 2007

Dear Felix, Nini's Mom and Family, I'm a fellow WMC employee, and although I have seen you, we have never met. We share a bond that no parent wants, having both lost a daughter. In 2000 my beautiful Lizzie died in a car accident in Summertown. She was 14, and would have been 15 on August 13. So Nini and Lizzie share a birthday month, as well as being close in age when they left. Lizzie was an incredible girl, like your Nini, with lots of friends. We were all in shock. It has been 7 years for us. What I share with you and your family is that hugely open, wounded heart. We never get over the loss, we just learn to live with it. I can tell you that it will get better. At some point, we have to tell ourselves that our girls would not wish us to be sad, and we pray for a chance to see them now in our dreams, to give us some time together until we meet them again on the other side. There will be little miracles of moments when you truly feel Nini's presence. The lesson all of us had from Lizzie was that you just don't know if you'll see someone again when you say goodbye. We resolved to be there for each other, to pay attention in the moment to the one in front of you, whomever that may be, and to say I Love You to those you love. I share this loss with you, I may know more than most what it feels like, so I pray deeply for all of you, and will be thinking of you this year, as you pass through all the difficult holidays without your beautiful Nini. NINI

felix and family, this is beautiful. i only met her once while yall were shopping. she is a beautiful girl and full of life. may her spirit still live in all of u. and find peace and love in her memories that yall have of her. this is a hard time of year, look to each other for comfort, and extended family and friends. that is what we are here for. only GOD can take away the pain, if u turn to him and ask. he called her home alot sooner then we like. and as parents. we want it to be us not our children. i can say i know how u feel , but i dont... i can only pray, that yall find peace, and remember her as she was. and continue to live life, with her in your hearts everyday. she is gone in the flesh, but lives through each one of u. i am sorry for your loss.

Thank You

November 23, 2007

I want to thank you for all your thoughts and prayers, for nini, me and all the family. There is a big hole in my heart that will never heal as Nini was a big important part of my life. I will never be the same as part of my life has died. I was asking for prayers for a selfish miracle, but my miracle was not to be. But I can assure you that a big miracle happened that I personally witnessed, I will tell you sometime. As for Nini, she was my little angel that we all shared and enjoyed. Now she is God's Angel to protect us all. I know with her spirit, she is causing havock in heaven and loving it. I pray to see her one day and recieve me with open arms and a great big Nini hug. And she will say, "What Took You So Long, Daddy". I can't wait, but as I do have my other half of my heart in Catherine, I must wait to see my Nini. Again, Thank you for all your thoughts and prayers. The entire family appreciate it. Felix Martin (Daddy).

I may be reached at felumar@aol.com and i also have myspace with the girls pics...it should be www.myspace.com/mygirlsdaddy

I pray for your family every single day and even though I don't talk about it much, I miss your Nini more than I would have ever imagined. She was a great impact in my life. She brightened up my days and made me smile. I will always love her and I will always keep your family in my prayers. In the good times we count our blessings, and in our most desperate times we pray for our hearts to stop breaking. Your angel is alive in you and in all her friends and in all her family. You have many people, that do not even know you, praying for peace to fill your hearts. Look towards Jesus Christ for comfort. There is no doubt that Nini was an angel here on earth and obviously needed in heaven. We don't know why things happen, and certainly we don't understand many, but we must believe that God knows best and we must accept. I pray for Nini, her sister, her parents, grandparents, family, friends and her school mates. We were all very fortunate for having such an individual among us. She will certainly be physically missed, but somehow, I think that we are all safer by having her watching over us. I knew your daughter when she was in St. Brendan Elementary School. I remember a girl which always had a smile on her face, and was always happy. I remember a girl which had a gleam in her eyes, whenever she was with her friends. I remember a girl which enjoyed doing things and participating in activities. I remember how she prayed in her 8th grade retreat. I remember taking her home after we had practice for the 8th grade events.
Now we must Remember the happy girl, with the gleam and smile in her face. We must remember the daughter, granddaughter,sister, cousin, friend, girlfriend, etc. She is smiling on all of us now. For she is with the Lord and not suffering. We are left to suffer the pain of her absence. But we will all meet again in the kingdom of heaven.

■ A Prayer for Understanding:

Lord, help us put our faith in You, and feel your presence near through each moment of uncertainty, whatever we may fear. Give us strength and understanding, and the reassurance, too, that You're always here beside us when we put out trust in You.

Sometimes only God Himself can help us understand when life starts going differently from what we may have planned - When things we used to count on don't seem certain anymore, or when we're facing challenges we've never known before. Sometimes only God Himself can put our hearts at rest by showing that He loves us and He always knows what's best.

There is so much i would have loved to tell you in person before you left us but now all that i have the strength to tell you is i love you and you are greatly missed in the halls of St. Brendan High school. You are in my heart always and my prayers are forever with you and your family. I will be with you tonight and i'm preparing myself for that. But it gives me so much strength when i realize that we will soon be together once again in heaven. Look over all of us and i know all the angels are appreciating your beautiful smile as much as we miss it down here ! <3

I love you sooo much you have no idea and i miss you. you were always so happy and even if we weren't that close you still made time to ask how i was doing. Whenever we couldn't hang out or something happened we would say NEXT time for sure but sadly we never had that next time and now i know to live everyday as if it were my last. I want you to help your family through this hard time especially Cat, she loves you so much and she needs to feel that you are there with her. I know you are looking down on us and you're up there with God as his new angel. I love you sooo much RIP Nini I love you!

A Gift

November 12, 2007

No matter how we look at it...GOD has graced us with so many blessings. Some of them we overlook and others are so evident. Carolynne was that person. She was a blessing to us all. Those that knew her well and those that just had a passing by. My sincerest wish is the eternal peace in the hearts of the Martin family. The jubilation of having been blessed with a real angel and the comfort that comes by her daily spiritual presence. She is with you. Everywhere you are...she is there. Look for..ask for her...with conviction. Her mission now is to bring the rest of you home...to this special place she now inhabits. Her signs are everywhere and although her physical life is gone...her love remains....it is what keeps your sanity as well as the gentle hand of Christ.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper center, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background.

the worst thing happend to me today... a man came into my house while no one was home exopt my mom. he pretended that he was fixing my gate that was currently broken. he knocked on my door and my mom opend it and he attacked her. she wrestled him and fought back as hard as she can. he chased her around the house. she realized where my dog was so she ran to my room to let him loose. she tripped, hit her head and passed out. he left without doing anything exopt tearing her shirt and leaving scratch marks on her. she's fine and nothing was taken. the reason im telling you this is because i want you to do me a favor and tell my moms guardian angel that i love him/her soo much and thank you for looking out for her. i know the angel guarded her well because nothing happend to her.

i miss you nini. i wish i can call you now and just talk to you so you can make my day like you used to :/

i love you. And thanks for looking out for my mom and Gus im glad they are both ok :]

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways.

Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

house. you asked me if you can see them one day and i said sure. i feel sad that i couldn't get to show you. i love you soo much.sometimes i stare at your photo that i have of you before i go to sleep and just think back of our little memories. i love you. and thanks for being such an amazing friend. see you in my dreams and one day in heaven.

Vivian Jugo

I came across this poem the other day and it made me think so much of you Nini.

"When Tomorrow Starts Without Me"

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,

And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for and so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, I thought, just for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see your smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things that I'd miss tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.

When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne,

He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you,

Today for life on Earth is past but here it starts anew.

I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last,

And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.

But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,

Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.

But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.

So won't you take my hand and share my life with me?"

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,

For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

David M. Romano

Even though we didn't have time to say enough I know I'll never forget the memories I have of you. I miss you so much, class really isn't the same without you. Nini,

This will probably embarrass you but when you were a little girl about 3 years old, your dad and I were watching a late movie and all of the sudden we see you go into the kitchen and pull down the dishwasher door open. Your dad immediately said don't tell her anything and don't touch her because she is sleep walking. So we didn't then you proceeded and began to pee as if you were on the toilet. When you were done you closed the dishwashers door and went back to bed. Your dad and I had to clean the mess but were laughing hysterically.

I also remember that you were awesome with frogs. One time I see you carrying this large frog that you picked up from the shore of the lake we lived on and this frog's legs were longer than your own, I remember I startled you when I yelled, " put that thing down "and with your cute little face you looked at me and put the frog down but before you put it down you gave it a big kiss on the mouth. i was totally freaked out, so I brought you in quickly and washed your mouth and hands with untibacterial soap. That frog must have fallen in love with you because after that it used to visit you and jump to you each time you were outside playing. I love you Chukie and I miss you. You will always be my angel. Take care of Cati, she needs you and misses you very much.

The Broken Chain

Little we knew that morning, That God would call your name,

In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, You did not go alone,

For part of us went with you, the day God called you home

You left us peaceful memories, Your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you, You're always at our side.

Our Family Chain is broken and nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one,

The Chain will link again.

nini. i miss you soo much. i remember those days you would call me and we would talk on the phone for ever and talk about how much you wanted to find the right guy for you. then i introduced you to charles that night at the cove. you two were meant for each other. i love you soo much. i still have the card you gave me for my birthday saying that i was turning 18 when i really was turning 19. it made me laugh because you knew i was really turning 19. now all those crazy moments will be memories. im really happy i shared my 19th birthday with you. eventhough i had the biggest fever. you were always there for me when i needed you. and even when i was just hanging out. i miss those random texts i got in class. now ill only be seeing you in my dreams. i think your family is soo amazing. i told some of your friends that if i ever met my father i wish he would be like yours. he's soo strong and i know he's proud of you. just be here for me by my side. i love you soo much nini.

i honestly didnt talk to her much during high schoo, but i went with her to class trip in 8th grade and we hung out together with barby, karla, and kristy. God how i miss those days. its sooo hard to see this happen. i rememebr summer after 8th grade year i went to a baseball game with her and on the ride back home she was prank calling victor and she would say "do you have chipmunks in your backyard cause i want some!" lol....and then we fell in the pool. she even covered for me when i told my mom that they "pushed" me in. she was always smiling never did i see her mad or sad. sigh god im guna miss her soooo much. imy nini. you will always be in my prayers and in my heart. save us a seat up there. watch over us.
